January is all about Determination. God performed amazing miracles as he took the Israelites out of Egypt and slavery and led them to an amazing place that He had prepared for them called "The Promised Land". When the Israelites got to the border they sent in spies to scout the land and bring a report. Two of the spies believed that God could give them the land even though their were people like giants living there, but the rest of the spies were afraid and began to turn the people against God. Read Numbers 14:1-39 and see if you can complete the crossword puzzle on the back page.

Find the way out of the maze.

Read
1 Corinthians 10:13.

God won't let a temptation happen to you that you can't resist without His help. Just like with this maze, there's a way out. So don't give in or give up. Temptations test your determination to do what's right, so keep doing what you should do because God says you can.

Ask God to help you memorize today's verse and remind you of it when you feel like giving up.
